

Family Enterprise Risk Practice

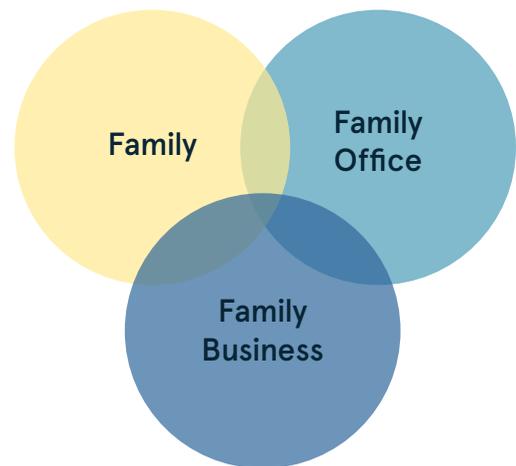

Insurance services across generations

Crystal Private Client, a division of Alliant Insurance Services, manages the insurance needs of affluent individuals and families who require a sophisticated approach to personal risk management. The Family Enterprise Risk Practice is our dedicated group that helps entrepreneurs and multi-generational families understand their risks and ensure they receive a seamless, integrated portfolio of insurance solutions.

How We Help

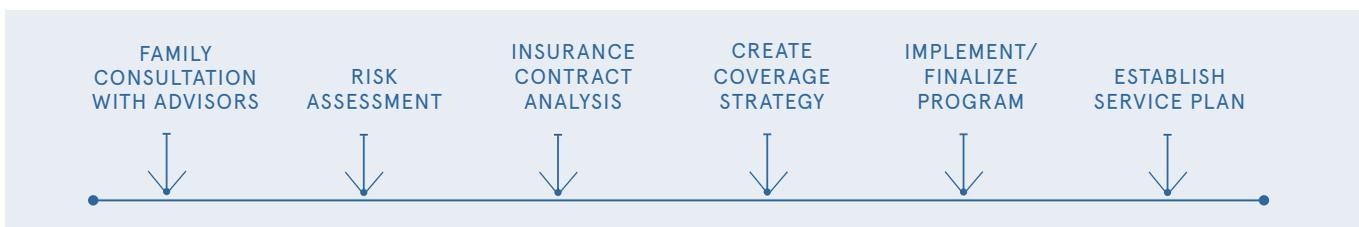

Informed by over 80 years of experience and rooted in three generations of family ownership, we address “family enterprise risk” across the entirety of multi-generational families’ business, investment, philanthropic and lifestyle activities. Our unique experience of serving the organizational structure and risk management strategy of family enterprises, ensures consolidation and uniformity of insurance solutions.

We are fully acquainted with working alongside families and their advisors where risk and insurance management services may be coordinated within a family office, operating company or holding company structure.

Our Process

Our process results in smart, customized solutions applicable to your family or organizational structure.
