

Family Office Design live, virtual workshop and the e-learning course deliver the same best-in-class content in two different formats. Use the guide below to determine which option is best for you.

E-Learning	vs.	Workshop
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Self-paced and self-directed learning through video instruction provided by FOX subject matter experts. • 1-year access to 2.5 hours of video instruction; digital content binder, quizzes at the end of each module to check understanding, and a workbook for applied learning. • Meet individually with one subject matter expert of your choice for a 30-minute call to ask for specific guidance on an issue you are tackling. • Take advantage of the opportunity to engage in Q&A and connect with peers by joining quarterly office hours held with a FOX subject matter expert. • Earn a digital badge. 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Live instruction from FOX subject matter experts over the course of three days. • 12 hours of live virtual instruction, printed content binder. • Ask your questions as they arise during the program. • Engage with peers in a small group setting and build connection over the course of the three-day workshop. • Opportunity for workshop content to be targeted to participating families based on completion of pre-work and questions asked. • Earn CPE credit.