

Private Trust
Company Workshop

Virtual event
Jan. 28-30, 2025

The private trust company has endured the test of time as a robust structure for achieving the multi-generational goals of wealth preservation, stewardship, and upholding flourishing families.

This program is essential for families currently forming or considering a PTC and insightful to family members and qualified trustees hoping to better understand their PTC structure. This workshop brings together leading experts and PTC executives to share their experience and insight about the PTC's special role in the family enterprise.

Day 1: Fundamentals—concentrates on fundamental questions for families and their advisory team exploring or currently forming a PTC.

Day 2: All Audiences—involves more qualitative questions and best practices and is appropriate for anyone with an interest in PTCs at any level of experience.

Day 3: Advanced—reviews more advanced topics for those who have experience and are looking to take an established PTC to the next level.
